

Associate of Applied Science in Industrial Technology

Learning Outcomes

After successfully completing this program, students will be able to:

1. Apply technology effectively as an essential tool in business and industry.
2. Apply safety principles in the workplace.
3. Understand and apply business and management principles.
4. Effectively communicate using both oral and written forms.
5. Understand application of mathematical and scientific principles.

Program Outcomes

1. Ensure that programs of study remain relevant to industry standards
2. Provide accessibility of the program to all students
3. Provide the highest quality atmosphere for instruction
4. Prepare graduates for gainful employment and advancement
5. Ensure a safe learning experience
6. Prepare students for the opportunity to continue their formal education at Clarion University or other institutions with the opportunity to obtain further industry certifications