40,951 Electronic Journals!

Did you know that Clarion University Libraries provide access to 40,951 electronic journals?

These journals contain millions of articles on almost every conceivable subject.

Here are some numbers that might interest you:

- 39,457 Total number of journal titles available to you
- 39,293 Electronic titles
- 163 Print titles
- 1 Microform titles (active)
- 10,780 Open Access journals (free to reader)
- $5,424 Most expensive individual journal title (Nature)
- $583 Average cost per individual journal title
- $450,534 Cost of journals & journal databases last year
- 3%-7% Typical annual cost increase per title

Where do you find these journals?

You can access most of them by going to the Library Web page, finding the green "Research" box, and clicking on the Journals/Magazines A-Z link. There you can either search for a specific title or browse the list by title or subject categories.

The Databases A-Z link provides information and access to all of the databases to which the Libraries subscribe. Links to the majority of journals are available here. Two databases that include thousands of academic journals on a wide range of topics are Academic Search Complete and ProQuest Direct. Most other databases have a subject focus, which may be of interest.

Don't forget to check out the LibGuide, "Databases by Subject" that will direct you to databases on broad subject categories such as Business Administration, Education, Psychology, and others. Locate this LibGuide quickly by clicking its title in the green "Research" box on the Libraries homepage.

600,000 Words... 3 Million Quotations... 1,000+ Years of English

The Oxford English Dictionary (OED) is widely regarded as the accepted authority on the English language. It is an unsurpassed guide to the meaning, history, and pronunciation of 600,000 words—past and present—from across the English-speaking world.

As an historical dictionary, the OED is very different from dictionaries of current English where the focus is on present-day meanings. You will still find present-day meanings in the OED, but you will also find the history of individual words, and of the language, traced through 3 million quotations, from classic literature and specialist periodicals to film scripts and cookery books.

The OED is available through the Libraries Homepage. In the green "Research" box click on the Databases link, then scroll down the alphabetical list or use the link to jump to the "O" section of databases.

If you have questions or need assistance, stop by the Libraries or call Carlson Library at 393-2490 or Suhr Library at 676-6591. Collaborative Study & Presentation Rooms

Do you need a place to practice a presentation or to work on a group project aided by a computer?

Two study rooms on Level A in Carlson Library are equipped with large, flat-screen monitors, computers, and Webcams making it easy for students to work on group projects, or collaborate as a study group and work together more effectively.

Available Webcams provide the opportunity to practice, record, and critique presentations, or to involve others in a collaboration via software such as Skype.

Technical assistance is available at the nearby S.W.A.T. (Students Who Assist [with Technology] Service Desk).

A similar, but portable, unit is available in the Charles Suhr Library on the Venango College Campus.

The equipment in the collaborative study & presentation rooms is made possible by Student Technology Fees and the Center for Computing Services.

The S.W.A.T. Minion's Tip: Just The Fax!

Do you need to fax a document? Although we don't have a fax machine, we can help you! The printer/scanner/copier on Level A of Carlson Library is part of the answer.

Step One: If you don't know how, the S.W.A.T. Team is happy to show you how to scan a document to your email.

Step Two: Use a free web-based fax service to deliver the document.

We've found several services online that you can use – free of charge! The list is posted near the Level A printer/scanner/copier. For your convenience, here is the list:

Cranial Candy: Word Of The Week ...

Victorian

PRONUNCIATION:

(vik-TOR-ee-uhn)

MEANING:

adjective:

1. Prudish; outdated; exaggeratedly proper; hypocritical.
2. Relating to the period of the reign of Queen Victoria (1837-1901).
3. Relating to ornate architecture, furnishings, etc., characteristic of the period.

ETYMOLOGY:

After Queen Victoria of England (1819-1901). Earliest documented use: 1839.

USAGE:

“We’ve been discussing how she’s not allowed to be alone with a boy until she’s twenty-five;”

Evan smiled. ‘How very Victorian of you.’”

Roni Loren; Forever Starts Tonight, InterMix Books; 2014.

Although we do not “repair” computers, the S.W.A.T. Team (Students Who Assist [with] Technology) on Level A of Carlson Library is always happy to help. Having an issue? Let us take a swat at it!

Something To Think About:

*You cannot do a kindness too soon,
for you never know how soon
it will be too late.
~ Ralph Waldo Emerson*
