Current Studies in Librarianship (CSiL) is a peer-reviewed journal that has been published since 1977 under the sponsorship of the Clarion University of Pennsylvania Department of Library Science and the Office of Research and Graduate Studies. CSiL is a forum for research papers by library science students, early career and seasoned librarians on subjects of general interest to librarians, under the direction of Dr. Xiaofeng Li and Ms. Tonya Otto. Articles submitted for publication are accepted on a rolling basis and should be readable, timely, thought-provoking, and contain new information or approach known information with new insight. Address subscription inquiries and manuscript submissions to Current Studies in Librarianship, Department of Library Science, Clarion University of Pennsylvania, 840 Wood Street, Clarion, Pennsylvania 16214, or send an email to csil@clarion.edu.
