

Business Administration; Master of Business Administration Degree

Program Outcomes

1. Provide basic core of knowledge about various theories, techniques, and practices relating to business administration and problem solving.
2. Obtain positions in middle management with private and public organizations.
3. Teach in community colleges.
4. Enroll in doctoral programs in business administration.